GERMANS MUST GIVE IN TO ECONOMIC PRESSURE

The Economic Pressure Brought Against Germany and Her Allies by Great Britain in Her Mastery of the Seas Will Finally Win is the Opinion of the King of Greece—Reported Austria Will Again Refuse Demands of United States in Ancona Affair and A Breach of Relations Is Expected—Artillery Activity Renewed on French Front—No Signs of Teutonic Move On Salonika and Not Now Believed Operations Will Be Carried Into Greece—Petrograd Reports Naval Victory on Black Sea With Loss of an Enemy Submarine—Unofficially Reported Italian King Was Wounded.

(By Associated Press.)
Athens, Dec. 28.—King Constantine of Greece thinks the allies may overcome the Teutons in the present struggle, according to unofficial reports of an interview between the monarch and General Castelnau, chief of the French general staff, published here today. King Constantine is said to believe the central powers cannot indefinitely resist the economic pressure.

(By Associated Press.)
Paris, Dec. 28.—Danger of a rupture between Austria-Hungary and the United States, following the forthcoming reply to the second United States note on the sinking of the Ancona, is recognized in Austrian official circles, according to advices printed here today.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Dec. 28.—Austria will not meet the United States' Ancona demands in her forthcoming reply and Teutonic diplomats are prepared for a breach of relations, it was unofficially reported today.

(By Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 28.—Great artillery activity along the whole Vosges front was reported by the Paris war office today, following several days quiet. Allied aviators report no sign of a Teutonic move against Salonika, says an Athens dispatch, and it is now believed there is little danger of military operations extending into Greece.

Petrograd reports a successful naval engagement in the Black Sea with the probable loss of an enemy submarine. King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, it was unofficially reported in Berlin as being wounded by an Austrian grenade.

(By Associated Press.)

ROBBERS WOUNDED BY BANK CASHIER

With Shotgun He Pursued Bandits and Succeeded in Shooting Both of Them From Ambush.

(By Associated Press.)
Hugo, Ok., Dec. 28.—Two young masked men, whose names were later learned as Claude Jones, aged 23, and Arthur McFarland, aged about 17, entered the Bank of Grant, at Grant, Ok., six miles south of here, at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon and after locking Cashier Webb and one customer in a vault, escaped with about $4,000 in currency, all of which was recovered.

The cashier and the customer were told to throw up their hands and were backed into the vault, which the robbers closed on them. The bandits did not understand the mechanism of the time lock and were unable to lock the door. A pistol belonging to the cashier was taken with the money.

When the robbers left, Cashier Webb opened the door of the safe, and taking a repeating shotgun, overlooked by the masked men, went by a short cut to the railroad station, 100 yards from the bank, and concealed himself behind a pile of railroad ties.

When the bandits approached, Webb ordered them to hold up their hands. Failing to do so, Webb fired ten shots, nine of which struck McFarland, the other striking Jones. Jones will probably die, while McFarland is badly wounded. Both men were brought to jail here last night.

McFarland attempted to shoot Webb after he fell, but his pistol was kicked from his hand.

PROHIBITION FIGHT ON IN CONGRESS

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Dec. 28.—House leaders are preparing for a vigorous fight over prohibition in congress. Chairman Webb of the judiciary committee is behind the move to submit a constitutional amendment for nation-wide prohibition.
